Two New Hires Bring Wealth of Experience to RHS Team

PITTSBURGH – July 24, 2007 – Reproductive Health Specialists (RHS) has made two new hires this summer as it continues to expand its fertility services.

Jennifer Smith was hired as an Assisted Reproductive Technologies Coordinator. A native of Western Pennsylvania, she attended West Penn Hospital nursing school and went on to California University of Pennsylvania to attain her Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Jennifer worked at Shady Grove Fertility in the Washington, DC area for four years before coming to RHS.

Richard Pulit was hired as an Assay/Andrology Technician. Richard is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. He has worked in the fertility field for 15 years.

Reproductive Health Specialists, Inc. (RHS) is the region's only independent, women-owned and operated reproductive endocrinology and fertility center focused on one goal: helping every patient to have a baby. The practice has two locations: Monroeville and Wexford.
